

The office chief (gov't employee) invites office members to her residence for dinner. An office member brings a bottle of fine wine (>$20) to the dinner. May the chief accept this bottle under the ethics provisions?

Yes

The office chief (gov't employee) invites office members to her residence for dinner. If a contractor employee (who lacks any other personal relationship to the chief) brings a bottle of fine wine (>$20) to the dinner, may the chief accept it under the ethics provisions?

No

When is the Annual OGE 450, Confidential Financial Disclosure Report, due?

15 February

T/F - Public Financial Disclosure Report Filers must file a Termination Financial Disclosure report within 30 days of departing Federal service.

True

T/F - An employee starting a position requiring financial disclosure filing has 20 days from appointment to this position to complete the new entrant financial disclosure report.

False

Which activity below is permitted by the Hatch Act and DoDD 1344.10?

Displaying a photo in your office area of the president giving you an official award

What kind of recognition may a DoD employee give a DoD contractor employee for performing work required by the DoD contractor's contract?

Past performance feedback, coordinated with the Contracting Officer (CO) or the Contracting Officer's Representative (COR), to the contracting firm

Which of the following items are considered gifts?

None of the following.