➤ 68th National Security and Law of Armed Conflict Course

From March 4-15, 2019 the National Security Law Department will host the 68th National Security and Law of Armed Conflict Course. The course is designed to train junior officers to succeed in national security law assignments, whether in garrison or in a deployed environment. The target audience is junior to mid-grade CPTs who are currently in, or will soon start, their first national security law assignment, or are otherwise preparing for upcoming deployments or exercises. Units must fund attendance.

Lifelong Learning

➤ MJA '16

As you all know, MJA '16 is in effect. COL Sara Root published a fantastic article in The Army Lawyer entitled "New Year, New Laws," which provides a great breakdown of what the changes will mean for judge advocates.

COL Root was also interviewed by the Army News Service for both an article and a Stand-To regarding the changes taking place this year, and look for her in an upcoming Army Times article.

JAGConnect

➤ Leadership, Management & Training

The Regional Council of Leaders will be moving its content to the JAGConnect - Leadership, Management & Training group to benefit the entire JAG Corps and better align with the concept of Total Army and JAG Corps AC/RC integration. Portions of the Western Region and Policy content has already moved as a pilot for the 2019 Western Region onsite!

➤ Legal Assistance

On December 31, 2018 the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) was amended. MAJ Matthew Wright, the Acting Chief of the Legal Assistance Policy Division has posted a great information paper regarding those amendments.
